

Burns Night @ The Tolly

January 26th @ 7pm

A celebration of the life and poetry of the poet Robert Burns, but also importantly the Whisky. Paired this with the piper that will great you, this is an evening not to be missed.

The Whiskymouse will be taking us on a tour around Scotland with 6 amazing distillers, teaching us how to taste, the different styles & characteristics and more importantly help us understand the Burns night history.

To Start

Arbroath Smokie Cullen Skink

With crispy hens egg

Main

Traditional Haggis straight from Scotland split by our piper

Served with stovies, tatties n neeps,

To Finish

Raspberry Cranachan

£40 a place, to book yourself in speak to a member of the team, full payment upfront